Business | Associate of Science

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS IN BRIEF
Change your future now, when you get your business education at Alvernia. Designed with the adult student in mind, our flexible business degree program accommodates those with a full-time job or family seeking to gain a competitive edge. Alvernia’s real world and relevant curriculum, taught by business savvy faculty and instructors, is available in several class formats to fit your lifestyle.

There are different reasons why individuals choose to pursue an associate degree in business At Alvernia, either as a first step toward a bachelor’s degree, or as a goal in and of itself. Whatever your motivation, Alvernia’s Associate of Science in Business program examines the contemporary business world from both practical and ethical standpoints. Business students combine classroom learning with real world knowledge through a cooperative education experience. This broad-based approach prepares graduates to succeed professionally by developing their supervisory and managerial skills necessary for career advancement. Also, Alvernia business faculty have solid academic qualifications and years of business experience. They are in touch with the latest trends and issues in the business world.

Upon completion of the Associate Degree program, students may apply their courses and requirements toward pursuit of the four-year business degree.

ACCREDITATION
Alvernia University’s Business Department, including its major in human resource management, is accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). For information explaining the benefits of earning a degree from an ACBSP accredited program, please visit www.acbsp.org or send an email to info@acbsp.org.

ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA
Alpha Sigma Lambda is the premier national honor society for nontraditional adult students. Its aim is to recognize the special achievements of adults who accomplish academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work. For the nontraditional student, the Society stands as an inspiration for continuing scholastic growth, and is a builder of pride through recognition. The Alvernia University ASL Chapter serves as a vehicle for imparting appreciation for adult students’ academic achievements and contributions. To this day Alpha Sigma Lambda is not only the oldest, but also the largest, chapter-based honor society for full- and part-time students.
