Beginning with the spoof on press interviews to the final rousing “We Got Joy” the program was crammed with laughter and entertainment. A ‘concert’ such as theirs was a welcome respite from the serious things of life which seem to pile up at the end of spring semester.” (From The Alvernian)

April 13, 1984. The first musical production in Alvernia’s history, Brigadoon, is presented in Francis Hall Auditorium as part of the college’s 25th anniversary celebration.

May 10, 1967. “Postulants presented a rollicking program for the student body.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 18, 1991. Daniel N. DeLucca is inaugurated as the fourth president of Alvernia.

June 10, 1999. The Caron Foundation chooses Theresa DeTemple, Alvernia’s Director of Health Services, as Educator of the Year for helping young people understand the consequences of alcohol and drug addiction.

April 15, 1972. Mrs. Muriel Humphrey, wife of presidential hopeful Hubert H. Humphrey, then Vice President of the United States, visits Alvernia.

April 26, 1966. Alvernia holds its first senior prom in the Garden Room of the Crystal Restaurant in Reading.

May 10, 1967. “Postulants presented a rollicking program for the student body.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.

May 25, 1980. First senior citizen student graduates as Alvernia’s 1000th graduate.

May 17, 1986. Ground is broken for the Physical Education Center.
