Alvernia Women's Council Mission:

The mission of the Alvernia University Women's Council (AWC) is threefold:

- To foster the personal and professional development of Alvernia women at all life stages
- To strengthen Alvernia women's connection to each other and Alvernia
- To educate and inspire women to pursue or grow in leadership roles.

How is Membership Defined?

Any individual who is committed to enhancing the quality of life for Alvernia Women. Individuals who participate in 4 or more programs, events, meetings, etc... annually would be considered as active members. Members may include, but not limited to, Alvernia students, alumni, faculty/staff, volunteers, community members, parents, Leadership Berks graduates, etc... There is no financial commitment to become a member.
